Career concept, career planning, relationship of career planning with vocational counseling, individual career development, CV preparation and CV types, job interview, career planning process, evaluation of the Turkish education system in line with career planning, applicability of career counseling in schools, lifelong career planning, career planning in retirement.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

The aim of the course is to introduce contemporary career planning methods that are compatible with real life problems in the rapidly changing economic, social, cultural, ethical and legal conditions of the business world and to predispose students to adapt them to their own lives. Career planning is a problem-solving and decision-making process that aims to establish the most appropriate relationship between the values and needs of individuals and their work experiences and opportunities. It enables individuals to be happier and more productive in their work. It creates individuals who can predict their future, know what awaits them, determine their goals accordingly, have high motivation, and are committed to their work. It is a course for individual practice. It provides a strategic approach to career planning and business research.
